yggdrasil the world tree provides the backdrop to the final act of our story tensions have reached the point of no return in the realms odin acting in what he believes is the best interest of everyone has sentenced jack to exile the dark elves are in a fury over his choice and are beginning to rally the rest of the races towards a coup d etat of the allfather meanwhile rumil has gone against everyone s wishes and is on her way to gandvik the prison that s holding jack to break him out hell hath no fury like a woman scorned jack is about to give up the cold wet air of the tower he s locked in has worn him down to the brink in his moment of despair he is rescued by the most unlikely of allies the norns themselves brought to their home the well of fates jack learns so much more about himself his inheritance from his father and what the future holds most shocking however is what and who must be sacrificed to prevent the end of all the realms everything that has happened is leading up to one singular moment the final battle at the base of yggdrasil the dark clouds of ragnarok loom high and the fimbulvetr is in full swing freyja holds all the keys waiting for the opportune moment to free surtr the burning sword with so much against them can jack rumil and the rest of their allies rally for one last victory or has freyja finally put together a team that no one can defeat find out in the final act of the ragnarok on ice trilogy the end is here this day was always meant to come no matter how hard one tries to change their fate it can t be done freyja holds the keys to muspelheim and with it the power to unleash the demon surtr on the realms with one singular goal the fire giant wants to burn the nine realms to the ground retribution for the millennia he's been stuck in his fiery pit before Jack Ruml and the rest of the team can even worry about him. Odin stands in their way; the Allfather believes he is the herald to bring the realms to order with the use of power and fear, refusing to see reason even from his own son Thor. He's declared war on everyone who stands against him. In one last epic tale, Jack travels over all the realms, gathering forces and knowledge that will lead him to his final stand. His only choice is to embrace his fate and trust his friends in the hopes that they will survive the Ragnarok.

In a quiet town where the sun kissed the rooftops with a golden hue lived a boy named Alex. At fifteen, Alex was just like any other teenager, filled with dreams, ambitions, and an insatiable thirst for adventure. But unlike most of his peers, Alex had found his escape not in sports or music but in the colorful, chaotic world of video games.
